LIST KSIĘDZA PROBOSZCZA

Drodzy Parafianie i Przyjaciele,

Pan Jezus przedstawia nam się dzisiaj jako Nauczyciel, który «nauczał w ich synagogach» (Łk 4,15). Rozpoczyna jak każdy głosiciel: czyta tekst Pisma, lecz ono właśnie w tym momencie się wypełnia... Spełniają się słowa proroka Izajasza, i nawet więcej: wszelkie słowo zapisane w Piśmie, wszystko to, co głosili prorocy uobecnia się i wypełnia w Jezusie. Nie jest obojętne wierzyć lub nie wierzyć w Jezusa Chrystusa, ponieważ to sam “Duch Pana” Go namaścił i posłał.

Przesłanie, które Bóg chce dać ludzkości w Słowie jest dobrą nowiną dla słabych, zapowiedzią wolności dla uwięzionych i prześladowanych, jest obietnicą zbawienia. Jest to przesłanie, które całą ludzkość napełnia nadzieją. A my synowie Boga w Chrystusie, w sakramencie chrztu zostaliśmy również namaśczeni i mamy udział w Jego misji: mamy nieść nadzieję całej ludzkości.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Today, the Word of God introduces Jesus the Master, when «He began teaching in the synagogues of the Jews» (Lk 4:15). He stood up, and like any other preacher, started to read a fragment of the Scriptures. A fragment that, precisely then, was accomplished... the great words of prophet Isaiah were being fulfilled; not only: all the words, all the contents of the Scriptures, whatever the prophets had been announcing is now being concreted by reaching its fulfillment in Jesus. It is no longer irrelevant whether to believe or not in Jesus, because it is the “Spirit of the Lord” who has anointed and sent him over.

Through His Word, God's message is good news to the poor, proclaims liberty to captives and new sight to the blind; frees the oppressed and announces a promise of salvation. It is a message filling with hope all mankind. We, children of God in Christ by virtue of our baptism, have also received his holy anointment to participate in his mission: namely, to bring this message of hope to all Mankind.

Rev. Piotr Rozek, Your Pastor

LUKE 4:18

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JANUARY 23, 2022

COMMUNITY

Community is important. Community is essential. Community is crucial. This message is the foundation of today's readings from Nehemiah, Corinthians, and Luke. Ezra's reading of the scroll is done in front of the community, including—a radical act at the time—women, and children old enough to understand, groups usually not counted among those hearing God's promise proclaimed. Community is important. The mystical Body of Christ, like the human body, functions best and most fully when all members are playing the role for which they were meant. Community is essential. God's word is fulfilled when the community has heard it, and witnessed it. In Luke, the baptism and desert trials of Jesus lead to the synagogue scene, which will then lead Jesus to his public ministry of proclaiming the reign of God. He eventually will journey to Jerusalem and his crucifixion. Community is crucial.

ONE BODY, ONE JESUS

Our liturgical calendar separates different Gospel scenes, which can sometimes do them a bit of a disservice. The liturgical year, of course, has its own rhythm and purpose, into which the stories of the life of Jesus are placed. However, when Luke was organizing his Gospel (for "Theophilus" the lover of God whom we encounter in today's Gospel introduction), today's scene was part of a three-fold structure: the baptism of Jesus; the temptation in the desert; the announcement of the public mission in the synagogue at Nazareth. Linking these is the Holy Spirit, who descended on the body of Jesus at his baptism, who filled his body as he endured his forty-day trial, and who is upon his body to announce and to bring about God's reign, a mission he fulfills with his body on the cross. The incarnation (the "in-flesh-ing") of Jesus, which we think of in connection with his birth, remains central to his story.

ONE CHRIST, ONE BODY

Last week's reading from Corinthians concerned the one Spirit who gives many gifts, yet is the source of our unity. Paul continues this theme today using the image of the body, whose different members each have an important and distinct role to play. The Spirit of baptism forms that one mystical Body of Christ. The Spirit of baptism fills the many members, but unites them always as one. The Spirit of baptism is on each member, as it was for Jesus in the synagogue at Nazareth. That Spirit of our baptism anoints each of us as a member of Christ's Body to be glad tidings, proclaim liberty, bring clearer vision, lift the oppressed, to announce God's reign to all. As different members of Christ's Body, we are each called upon to do this in our own way. We may face opposition or rejection, as Jesus did, but we can always turn again in faith to the Spirit of our baptism who is still with us.

„POLISH GIFT OF LIFE,, NEEDS YOU

For over forty years The Polish Gift of Life, Inc. has been providing financial assistance to help save the lives of Polish children requiring open-heart surgeries; since 1978 the PGOL has given more than 600 children a chance at the lives they were denied at birth! We have assisted with surgeries performed in Europe as well as in the United States, including the Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh and Boston Children's Hospital.

Due to illness and the passing of several members of the Board of Directors, the PGOL currently has openings on the Board for those who would like to help save children's lives! The requirements of Board membership are minimal (several hours per month) and there is no financial commitment. Due to COVID protocols, face to face meetings have been suspended, and PGOL business is conducted online via email and by telephone. We expect to resume monthly meetings at the St. Hedwig's Rectory in Floral Park as soon as it is safe to do so. To learn more about the PGOL and its mission, please contact me at any time: Dr. Henry Sikorski, President, at 516-747-1024, or by email: sikorski.henry@gmail.com (The PGOL is registered as a not-for-profit 501c(3) corporation).

The work of the PGOL must continue! Please consider becoming a member of the Board of Directors at this critical time! As Holy Father, Pope Francis, reminds us: "As we experience the brokenness of our human nature around us, we should be reminded of what Jesus said: "Whatever we will do for one of the least ones, we do it for Him."
