SUNDAY REFLECTIONS

SNITCEFFER YADNUS

Today, the Gospel suggests that we consider some of Jesus' recommendations to His disciples, both from those times and for all times. Even in the community of the early Christians, there were faults and behaviors contrary to God's will. The final verse provides the framework for resolving problems that arise within the Church throughout history: "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them" (Mt 18:20). Jesus is present in every period of the life of His Church, His "Mystical Body", invigorated by the unceasing action of the Holy Spirit. We are always brothers and sisters, whether the community is large or small.

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother" (Mt 18:15). How beautiful and loyal is the fraternal relationship about which Jesus teaches us! When faced with an offense against me or someone else, I must ask the Lord for His grace to forgive, to understand, and ultimately, to try to correct my brother or sister.

Today, things are not as simple as when the Church was less numerous. But if we ponder our relationships in dialogue with our Heavenly Father, He will enlighten us to find the time, place, and appropriate words to fulfill our duty to help one another in a spirit of familial charity. It's crucial to purify our hearts. Accordingly, St. Paul encourages us to correct our neighbor with a righteous intent: "Brothers, even if a person is caught in some transgression, you who are spiritual should correct that one in a gentle spirit, looking to yourself, so that you also may not be tempted" (Gal 6:1). Our deep affection and humility will make us seek gentleness. "Go with a motherly hand, with the almost infinite tenderness shown by our own mothers, when they were treating the hurts and injuries, big or little, resulting from our childhood games and falls" (Saint Josemaría Escrivá).

This is how the Mother of Jesus, and our Mother too, corrects us: with inspirations to love God and our brothers and sisters more deeply. Evangelinet.net

SŁOWO NA NIEDZIELĘ

Dzisiaj Ewangelia proponuje nam rozważenie kilku zaleceń Jezusa, które skierował do Swoich uczniów, ówczesnych i późniejszych. Także w pierwotnej wspólnotie chrześcijańskiej miały miejsce uchybienia i zachowania sprzeczne z wolą Boga.

Końcowy werset daje nam ramę dla rozwiązywania problemów, które pojawiają się w Kościele na przestrzeni dziejów: «gdzie są dwaj albo trzej zebrani w imię moje, tam jestem pośród nich» (Mt 18,20). Jezus jest obecny we wszystkich okresach życia Swego Kościoła, Jego “mistyczne Ciało” ożywiane jest przez nieustanne działanie Ducha Świętego. Zawsze jesteśmy braćmi, czy wspólnota jest wielka czy mała.

«Gdy brat twój zgrzeszy, idź i upomnij go w cztery oczy. Jeśli cię usłucha, pozyskasz swego brata» (Mt 18,15). Jak piękny i lojalny jest związek braterstwa, o którym poucza nas Jezus! W obliczu uchybienia wobec mnie czy innych, mam prosić Pana o łaskę przebaczenia, aby zrozumieć, a ostatecznie, aby spróbować poprawić mojego brata.

Dziś nie jest to takie proste, jak wtedy, gdy Kościół był nieliczny. Ale jeśli myślimy o wszystkim w dialogu z Bogiem naszym Ojcem, On nas oświeci, aby znaleźć czas, miejsce i odpowiednie słowa, aby spełnić nasz obowiązek pomocy. Ważne jest, byśmy oczyścili nasze serca. Święty Paweł zachęca nas do korygowania innych z dobrą intencją: «gdyby komu przydarzył się jaki upadek, wy, którzy pozostajecie pod działaniem Ducha, w duchu łagodności sprowadźcie takiego na właściwą drogę. Bacz jednak, abys i ty nie uległ pokusie» (Ga 6,1).

Głęboka miłość i pokora pomogą nam znaleźć łagodność. «Działajcie z ręką matki, z nieskończoną delikatnością naszych matek, kiedy leczyły nam duże i małe rany naszych dziecięcych zabaw i potknięć» (Św. Josemaría). Tak koryguje nas Matka Jezusa i nasza Matka, z inspiracją, by jeszcze bardziej kochać Boga i bliźniego.

Here's a summary of the major points from Week 1:

1. The History of the Bible:

- We reviewed how the Old Testament and New Testament came together.
 - The New Testament contains 27 books.
- The canon of Scripture was recognized early in the Church, with St. Irenaeus affirming the core books and later councils confirming the canon.
- We touched on the Reformation and how certain books were removed from the canon in Protestant traditions.

2. Reading Mark Chapters 1–2:

- We reflected on the baptism of Jesus and what true repentance means.
 - Mark's Gospel moves quickly—his "immediate" tone shows urgency and mission.
- We saw the early tension between Jesus and the Pharisees, who believed strict legal observance earned salvation. We discussed how this misses the heart of the Gospel: love, mercy, and relationship with God.

3. Key Moments We Discussed:

- Healing of the leper and how lepers were treated as outcasts. How Jesus restores him not only physically but socially—bringing him back into the community.
 - Jesus' instruction to silence:
- we introduced Mark's "Messianic Secret"—Jesus often tells people not to reveal His identity because the people were not yet ready to understand Him fully. It would also make it difficult for Jesus to travel freely.
- The Sabbath: We talked about how Jesus reveals the true meaning of the Sabbath and challenges the Pharisees' rigid approach.

Thank you again for your thoughtful participation. I'm looking forward to our next session as we continue to walk through Mark's Gospel together.

Blessings, Deacon Ivan
