LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Friends

Summer has begun and we are starting our holidays. As your parish priest, I want to assure you of my prayers for all those who travel and go on holidays. I hope that children and young people will get a good rest and regain strength before returning to school. My hope for adults is to spend more time with the family during the summer. You are to take care of one another, especially your children. May each of them enjoy the protection of the Guardian Angel and all the saints. Remember about Sunday Mass. When leaving, always google where you will be and where the nearest Catholic church is located. May our Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ, extend his protection over you. Always return to your homes happily. God bless.

Fr. Piotr Rozek, Your Pastor

On this Independence Day, I am reminded of all those who have sacrificed for my freedom, following the example of your Son, Jesus Christ. Let me not take my freedom, both physical and spiritual, for granted. May I always remember that a very high price was paid for my freedom. My freedom cost others their very lives. Lord, today, bless those who have served and continue to give their lives for my freedom. With favor and bounty, meet their needs and watch over their families. Dear Father, I am so thankful for this nation. For all the sacrifices others have made to build and defend this country, I am grateful. Thank you for the opportunities and freedoms we have in the United States of America.

Help me never to take these blessings for granted. In your name, I pray. Amen.

OGŁOSZENIE KSIĘDZA PROBOSZCZA

W ostatnim czasie znajdujemy w naszym kościele Komunię Św. – Ciało Pana Jezusa pozostawione w ławce, czasami w książce a nawet i na podłodze naszego kościoła. Najczęściej ten fakt ma miejsce po Mszach Św. takich jak pogrzeb i ślub. Będziemy w najbliższym czasie przypominać o znaczeniu Komunii Św. w czasie każdej celebracji Mszy Św. tuż przed udzielaniem Eucharystii – Ciała Chrystusa. Was wszystkich proszę o pomoc, abyście zwracali uwagę na ludzi będących obok nas w kościele a wyglądających na osoby, które nie mają doświadczenia i wiedzy o Komunii Św. Szczególnie proszę was o uwagę wtedy, gdy zapraszamy na pogrzeb lub ślub osoby z innych religii i kościołów. Komunia Św. jest Sakramentem tylko dla osób, które są Katolikami i żyją zgodnie z nauką Kościoła.

Ks. Piotr Rozek

PASTOR'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Recently, we find Holy Communion in our church. - The body of the Lord Jesus left in a pew, sometimes in a book and even on the floor of our church. Most often, this fact occurs after Holy Masses. such as a funeral and a wedding. We will soon remind you of the importance of Holy Communion. during each celebration of the Holy Mass. just before giving the Eucharist - the Body of Christ. I am asking all of you for help, to pay attention to the people next to us in the church who look like people who do not have experience and knowledge about Holy Communion. I especially ask your attention when we invite people from other religions and churches to a funeral or wedding. First Communion. it is a sacrament only for people who are Catholics and live according to the teaching of the Church.

Fr. Piotr Rozek

FEAST OF FAITH
PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

The altar is prepared, the gifts are received. Several brief rites follow with accompanying prayers, some prayed silently by the priest and deacon and others said aloud. We call this part of the Mass the “preparation.” What kind of preparation is happening? First, the presider holds up the paten or bowl containing the hosts, and says words that Jesus must have said many times, since they derive from ancient Jewish meal prayers: “Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation!” We have brought forward our gifts, our offering to God, and now we acknowledge that they are not really ours—the gifts that we give are God’s gift to us. It is “through your goodness” that we have gifts to offer. It is significant that we offer not wheat and grapes, but bread and wine; “fruit of the earth and work of human hands.” Bread and wine are both God’s work, and ours. These preparatory rites also prepare us for what we are about to do in the Eucharist, a mystery in which divine and human meet; a holy collaboration in which our action is caught up into God’s divine plan.

He took the child by the hand and said to her, “Talitha koum,” which means, “Little girl, I say to you, arise!” The girl rose immediately and walked around.

JESUS’ EXAMPLE OF HELPING OTHERS

In today’s second reading Paul offers a wonderful argument to his converts at Corinth for seeking to help those in need. He is dealing with a practical problem, arranging a collection for the poor of the church of Jerusalem; but as he often does, he develops an important teaching about Jesus to make his point.

After asking that they show their faith by generous gifts, he reminds them of the “gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich” (2 Corinthians 8:9). In the Incarnation our Lord assumed our human nature, certainly becoming poor for one who is God. The ultimate gracious act of this poverty was going to the cross with all its terrible sufferings. By this act of poverty we definitely become rich. Now our sins can be forgiven; we can share in the very life of God through the sacraments; we can attain eternal salvation!
